THIS DOCUMENT ONLY INCLUDES PUBLIC KNOWLEDGE.

CONTENT WARNING:

The following document contains the following: Abuse, Harassment, Pornography (censored), Racism, and Suicide-baiting (+ mocking someone's suicide attempt).

Connor Miller, better known as @HatsuneMiku online (alongside being known as Femto, @xtc_addict, and @Vocaloid), runs a famous parody with over 440,000 followers on Twitter. He is well-known for uploading posts themed around Vocaloids (more specifically Hatsune Miku) several times per-day.

What a majority of his fanbase is unaware of however, is that since at least 2020, he has had a track record of abusing his ex, saying racial slurs, bullying a black cosplayer, baiting his own suicide, mocking a popular artist's suicide attempt, hacking the @HatsuneMiku account via sim-swapping, and getting callouts directed at him taken down/getting the people calling him out suspended.

The following document is an archive of every callout directed at him.

Note: This document was originally made for Google Docs, but was taken down. Due to this, each tab has its own respective PDF for consistency.

Fuck you Connor.
